

Please, please please don't mess with my XM Radio. Why can't we just have nice things? Why does everything good have to be nailed by greedy bloodsucker lawyers and big corporations? Isn't there enough money to around for these leeches that they have to try to put down everything good? Please tell the moneygrubbers to have a big cup of Shut the Hell up and go back to minding their own business!